

Lifting Up Asian American and Pacific Islander Staff Voices

Diane Kung

Berkeley High School
English Teacher

Favorite Book: Minor Feelings,
Cathy Park Hong

Favorite Performer: Erykah
Badu

Ideal Dinner Guests: Serena
Williams, Ali Wong, Hayao
Miyazaki

When Not Working: I like walking my dog and learning how to play the ukelele

"I've learned to embrace the varied ways humans communicate, including translanguaging, which honors all of one's linguistic abilities. These days, I've become braver in challenging the status quo and creating systems that are more flexible and open-minded.

"I want people to know that the APIA community is incredibly diverse and that the concerns of the APIA community are real."

AAPI Heritage Month

Berkeley
PUBLIC SCHOOLS