

Lifting Up Asian American and Pacific Islander Staff Voices

Eleanor Tiglao

Cragmont Elementary
Teacher

Favorite Book: Historical Fiction, such as Pachinko

Favorite Series: PBS Mysteries, Period Pieces, Masterpiece
Ideal Dinner Guests: Maria Ressa, Michelle Obama, Malala Yousafsai

When Not Working: I'm relaxing, reading, exploring, and being outdoors with family and friends.

"Although I have been a U.S. citizen for nearly 50 years, I still encounter hate against Asians. I feel scared, angry and sad whenever this happens. We need to stop hurtful stereotypes and stop Asian hate and racism of all kinds."

"Teaching with a multicultural perspective of American history is essential since it is through learning about each other's stories that we build empathy and understanding."

AAPI Heritage Month

Berkeley
PUBLIC SCHOOLS