"But it is not enough to progress as individuals while our friends and neighbors are left behind!" - Cesar

chavez

Cesar chavez inspired me to take care of my community as well as myself. Cesar chavez spent most of his life making the world a better place and I would like to also. If I could make this world a better place I would want to try stop violence. Why do I want to stop violence? I have heard gunshots around my neighborhood and I have seen kids fight. I know people are getting hurt and it breaks my heart. It makes me want to cry, and it makes me feel insecure and helpless. I don't want to feel this way!

One important thing I can do is to try to get rid of guns. Because, guns don't just hurt they kill. I don't think anybody except police officers and those who need them for their jobs should have guns. I think that helping to get rid of guns would help my community be safer and be more secure.

Since I'm only eleven years old I would like to start reading and getting some information about
