

BUSD RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

2015 Berkeley PUBLIC SCHOOLS Berkeley Unified School District research SYMPOSIUM

After a 5 year hiatus, Berkeley Research, Evaluation and Assessment (BREA) is hosting the return of the BUSD Research Symposium on November 6, 2015. The Symposium will bring leading thinkers in current innovative educational research together with Berkeley community members, BUSD educators and parents to rethink the role research can play to improve our educational practices. The Research Symposium is of particular importance to parents and others in our community, because educational research informs future educational policies that hold the promise to improve the educational outcomes for all our students, particularly those who are caught in the opportunity gap. The 2015 BUSD Research Symposium aims to reach more than 200 community members from Berkeley and the greater community.
