*The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 prohibit nonacademic and extracurricular programs and activities operated or sponsored by public schools from discriminating against students with disabilities by denying admission or ongoing participation solely on the basis of a child's disability. These programs and activities may not deny a reasonable accommodation without making an individualized assessment of the student's needs. A reasonable accommodation may not fundamentally alter the program, or otherwise impose undue burden on the District. Participation in the program or activity need not be required by the student's IEP or Section 504 plan in order for the student to receive aids, supports, modifications, or services.
