

20 Black Woman Leaders Who Changed America

By: Kailey Robinson and Nevaeh Babitt and inspired by Emily Easton, author of Enough!

Harriet led the way.
Sojourner spoke the truth.
Ella sang a song.
Molly helped stop fires.
Rosa kept her seat.
Ruby wanted to learn.
Phillis gave us poems
Mary loved the children.
Ida wrote to protect.
Mae was out of this world.
Katherine knew her facts.
Bessie soared high.
Wilma ran the distance.
Maya's words helped people rise.
Althea won grand slams.
Flo-Jo ran with speed.
Michelle inspires me and you.
Coretta lead for civil rights.
Beyoncé broke records.
Oprah says, "A new day is on the horizon."

We are the future
Standing on shoulders

I am Harriet Tubman
I am Sojourner Truth
I am Ella Fitzgerald
I am Molly Williams
I am Rosa Parks

We are the future
Standing on shoulders

I am Ruby Bridges
I am Phillis Wheatley
I am Mae Jemison
I am Nevaeh
I am Kailey

You are the future
Standing on shoulders!