

Home Learning: Network Information

US Internet Service Providers are recognizing the impact that COVID-19 is having on students and are providing free access to their resources for a period of time.

These benefits below have generally been put in place for 60 days starting on March 14 or 15.

	Comcast is offering a range of generous measures to address Covid-19 including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Free hotspot usage - interactive map • Unlimited data for existing customers • No disconnects or late fees assessed • 60 days of free internet for new customers
	Sprint has offered a range of measures to address Covid-19 including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No disconnects or late fees assessed • Unlimited smartphone data • Additional 20GB of mobile hotspot data
	T-Mobile is offering a range of measures to address Covid-19 including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Unlimited smartphone data • Free tethering/hotspot service
	AT&T is offering a few measures to address Covid-19 including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Free public wifi spots • No disconnects or late fees assessed
	So far Verizon has not offered any specific benefits to help distance learning other than to waive late fees for those "impacted by Covid-19". Stay tuned for updates.