Instructions

The LCAP Federal Addendum is meant to supplement the LCAP to ensure that eligible LEAs have the opportunity to meet the Local Educational Agency (LEA) Plan provisions of the ESSA.

The LCAP Federal Addendum Template must be completed and submitted to the California Department of Education (CDE) to apply for ESSA funding. LEAs are encouraged to review the LCAP Federal Addendum annually with their LCAP, as ESSA funding should be considered in yearly strategic planning.

The LEA must address the Strategy and Alignment prompts provided on the following page.

Each provision for each program must be addressed, unless the provision is not applicable to the LEA.

In addressing these provisions, LEAs must provide a narrative that addresses the provision within the LCAP Federal Addendum Template.

Under State Priority Alignment, state priority numbers are provided to demonstrate where an ESSA provision aligns with state priorities. This is meant to assist LEAs in determining where ESSA provisions may already be addressed in the LEA's LCAP, as it demonstrates the LEA's efforts to support the state priorities.

The CDE emphasizes that the LCAP Federal Addendum should not drive LCAP development. ESSA funds are supplemental to state funds, just as the LCAP Federal Addendum supplements your LCAP. LEAs are encouraged to integrate their ESSA funds into their LCAP development as much as possible to promote strategic planning of all resources; however, this is not a requirement. In reviewing the LCAP Federal Addendum, staff will evaluate the LEA's responses to the ESSA plan provisions. There is no standard length for the responses. LEAs will be asked to clarify insufficient responses during the review process.

California's ESSA State Plan significantly shifts the state's approach to the utilization of federal resources in support of underserved student groups. This LCAP Federal Addendum provides LEAs with the opportunity to document their approach to maximizing the impact of federal investments in support of underserved students.

The implementation of ESSA in California presents an opportunity for LEAs to innovate with their federally-funded programs and align them with the priority goals they are realizing under the state's Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF).

LCFF provides LEAs flexibility to design programs and provide services that meet the needs of students in order to achieve readiness for college, career, and lifelong learning. The LCAP planning process supports continuous cycles of action, reflection, and improvement.

Please respond to the prompts below, and in the pages that follow, to describe the LEA's plan for making the best use of federal ESEA resources in alignment with other federal, state, and local programs as described in the LEA's LCAP.

Strategy

Explain the LEA's strategy for using federal funds to supplement and enhance local priorities or initiatives funded with state funds, as reflected in the LEA's LCAP. This shall include describing the rationale/evidence for the selected use(s) of federal funds within the context of the LEA's broader strategy reflected in the LCAP.

In almost every area, federal funds are supplementing, expanding, or complimenting a critical work area or area of heavy investment within our LCAP. Through both literacy investments, mathematics assessments, social emotional supports and services for homeless students, our federal funds are directly aligned with state-funded LCAP investments, particularly in the area of the supplemental funds directed toward language learners, foster youth, and low income students.

Alignment

Describe the efforts that the LEA will take to align use of federal funds with activities funded by state and local funds and, as applicable, across different federal grant programs.

In areas like Title 1 and Title 3a, funds will compliment a heavy LCAP investment in ELL teacher leaders and ELD program generally with increased resources for coaching teacher specialists, facilitating parent workshops and our District English Language Learner Advisory Committee (DELAC), as well as coordination of direct services to students in our Two Way Immersion programs (TWI).

Other examples will appear throughout the document.

ESSA Provisions Addressed Within the LCAP

Within the LCAP an LEA is required to describe its goals, and the specific actions to achieve those goals, for each of the LCFF state priorities. In an approvable LCAP it will be apparent from the descriptions of the goals, actions, and services how an LEA is acting to address the following ESSA provisions through the aligned LCFF state priorities and/or the state accountability system.

In addressing these provisions, LEAs must provide a narrative that addresses the provision within this addendum.

As previously stated, the CDE emphasizes that the LCAP Federal Addendum should not drive LCAP development. ESSA funds are supplemental to state funds, just as the LCAP Federal Addendum supplements your LCAP. LEAs are encouraged to integrate their ESSA funds into their LCAP development as much as possible to promote strategic planning of all resources; however, this is not a requirement. In reviewing the LCAP Federal Addendum, staff will evaluate the LEA's responses to the ESSA plan provisions. There is no standard length for the responses. LEAs will be asked to clarify insufficient responses during the review process.

TITLE I, PART A

Educator Equity

ESSA SECTION 1112(b)(2)

Describe how the LEA will identify and address, as required under State plans as described in Section 1111(g)(1)(B), any disparities that result in low-income students and minority students being taught at higher rates than other students by ineffective, inexperienced, or out-of-field teachers.

THIS ESSA PROVISION IS ADDRESSED BELOW:

While BUSD started the school year with vacancies, we now have only one vacancy in Moderate/Severe special education which is covered by a retired teacher. All teachers meet credential requirements per Human Resources records and County Office credential audits each year. No teachers are currently misassigned. We have hired interns this year and are working with the universities to implement supports. No teachers are currently assigned to "out-of-field" areas. We do have teachers on provisional internship permits (PIPs) and short-term sta? permits (STSPs) as well as teachers on waivers.

District-wide student enrollment system distributes students to schools with close to proportional assignments so populations are generally diverse and do not put high concentrations of low-income and minority students in single schools or classrooms. In the few schools where these concentrations exist to a degree additional LCAP funding for counseling and intervention sta? has been allocated.

With respect to low-income and minority students, an analysis was recently completed. No equity gaps were identified. Hard to sta? positions have been identified and working with community and unions to create recruitment and retention plans.

If a disparity were identified, BUSD would use the reassignment process to redistribute the teachers as appropriate to provide quality instruction. We have allocated resources and funding to create pipelines to hire qualified educators and educators of color. BPACT grant, partnership with St. Mary's College and other local universities.

Parent and Family Engagement

ESSA SECTIONS 1112(B)(3) AND 1112(B)(7)

Describe how the LEA will carry out its responsibility under Section 1111(d).
Describe the strategy the LEA will use to implement effective parent and family engagement under Section 1116.

THIS ESSA PROVISION IS ADDRESSED BELOW:

Our district has the great fortune of employing full-time family engagement specialists at all of our K-5 schools and at our high school. At middle schools a more collaborative approach between counselors and teachers on special assignment serve as liaisons. These liaisons create an easy to access channel for parents and families who are often English learners, low-income students, or families in crisis who need assistance navigating our schools and school systems. As part of the regular development process of the SPSAs, schools are experienced in involving parents and family members in jointly revising plans. With support/training regarding the new ESSA designations, SPSAs at our two identified sites (CSI and Targeted Support and Improvement) were co-developed with stakeholders using the same process.

The Office of Family Engagement and Equity offers district-wide support for families, and is in the second year of piloting school-based family engagement programs at six of the district's elementary schools. The work of all the Family Engagement and Equity staff is to support and educate parents and families in three main focal areas: 1) Establishing links between home and school for academic success, 2) Improving behavioral supports for students by helping families build trusting relationships with school staff and students, and 3) Promoting attendance and access to health services.

In the 19-20 school year, Berkeley Unified School District will be revising its Parent/Family Engagement Policy, using both the LCAP engagement process and the existing structures at school sites to co-develop new content. The revised policy will be posted on the district's website and sanctioned materials and made readily available to families in all relevant offices; a copy of the revised policy will be mailed to each family as well. BUSD provides systemic parent workshops that provide deep understanding of academic standards, assessments. The Office of Family Engagement & Equity (OFEE) offers a three part educational parenting series of workshops that provide families with progress monitoring of students.

Family Engagement Specialists at school sites meet with unduplicated students and families to assist with progress monitoring and using technology (including education about the harms of copyright piracy new this year). Individual school sites provide different levels of parent education on these topics. Parents are engaged with students during these events, and library services are brought in to provide access to online resources provided by BUSD and city and other effective technology/programs.

In addition to outreach opportunities, information is readily available online and at school sites, student progress is put in database (illuminate). Parents do have access to the standards (online and paper copies at the school site). Many elementary schools have regular engagement of parents and students with morning and evening events such as Bagels and Books, and literacy nights.

Family Engagement Specialists work with site administrators and are included in staff meetings to share strategies and facilitate effective partnerships between parents and staff. A systematic approach to educating staff around family engagement is the next step in OFEE's strategic plan. has yet to be developed and adopted.

Recommendations from the Office of Family Engagement and Equity will be used to develop and implement to revise Family Engagement Plan, to include every employee in engaging families.

OFEE is situated purposefully, both physically and in the communication structure so as to align organically with both community stakeholders and central office departments. In this way, all district efforts to improve student outcomes are coordinated and integrated seamlessly. Translation is available as needed by a dedicated individual for new content. In addition, information that is sent to families via email can be translated in multiple languages, the parent Handbook is translated in Spanish, Student report card description/explanations are in English and Spanish. The district newsletter on our district's website is translated into Spanish & information sent home from the district in paper format is translated into Spanish. We do not meet the threshold to translate into any other language.

With respect to the LCAP development, this is well-integrated into our work. There is a Parent Advisory Committee that meets regularly (monthly) to advise the district. as well as leadership training workshops for parent leaders to ensure parent effectiveness. Of course, PAC meetings & parent input into funding of programs.

BUSD provides opportunities and special accommodations for meaningful participation for families with special needs and continues to monitor for migratory families. As a rule, rosters are reviewed to determine eligibility for migratory families and attendance of families with special needs so as to prepare and provide the appropriate supports. Additional more proactive outreach methods are being considered.

Schoolwide Programs, Targeted Support Programs, and Programs for Neglected or Delinquent Children ESSA SECTIONS 1112(b)(5) and 1112(b)(9)

Describe, in general, the nature of the programs to be conducted by the LEA's schools under sections 1114 and 1115 and, where appropriate, educational services outside such schools for children living in local institutions for neglected or delinquent children, and for neglected and delinquent children in community day school programs.

Describe how teachers and school leaders, in consultation with parents, administrators, paraprofessionals, and specialized instructional support personnel, in schools operating a targeted assistance school program under Section 1115, will identify the eligible children most in need of services under this part.

THIS ESSA PROVISION IS ADDRESSED BELOW:

SPSAs are locally developed with the involvement of parents and other members of the community, with the primary intent to address the needs of all children in the school, but particularly the needs of those at risk of not meeting the challenging State academic standards, understanding this is how they are eligible for Title I. SPSAs are developed to improve student outcomes, strengthen the academic program in the school, increase the amount and quality of learning time, and when appropriate and possible, help provide an enriched and accelerated curriculum. Activities and strategies selected are meant to provide opportunities for all children, including each of the subgroups of students to meet the challenging State academic standards.

First, training and updates for the stakeholder engagement process are held with site administrators during weekly administrators' meetings. During the spring, administrator meetings include time for principals to work on the SPSA, to collaborate with colleagues, to get assistance from district office staff, and during most years, to present key parts of the SPSA to fellow administrators. In addition, the Bureau of Research, Evaluation and Assessment provides data for the reports. Site administrators meet with Business Services staff to align the SPSA expenditures to their total budget.

Next, Principals meet with their School Site Council to review school data, program reports and available resources to inform crafting of the new SPSA. The principal draws up a draft and then presents the SPSA to the SSC for approval. Finally, the SPSA is submitted to the district office. At this point, the SPSA becomes a living document, which is regularly monitored and revised as necessary based on student needs and all students have been provided with opportunities to meet the challenging State academic standards.

As the SPSA is a co-developed document, intended to inform and guide site level priorities, it is essential that the information contained in such plan shall be accessible and understandable. All sites use the same template to ensure calibration between communities. As requested by school personnel or community members/parents, the SPSA is translated as needed.

As described above, the SPSA development process is informed and supported by several central offices and stakeholder groups, to maximize coherence and cooperation and coordinated and integration with other Federal, State, and local services, resources, and programs (as applicable)

Based on an analysis of data, resources are aligned with selected programs, activities, and courses necessary to provide a well-rounded education. The strategies, activities

& interventions identified during the SPSA development are all evidence-based, provided to eligible student populations at our Title I eligible sites. Examples include: Supplemental capacity to complete FTEs for Literacy Coaches, additional literacy support (partial FTEs) for English Learners, Reading Recovery After School hours. Each of the identified actions is supported in the SPSA by a continuous improvement rationale.

Homeless Children and Youth Services

ESSA SECTION 1112(b)(6)

Describe the services the LEA will provide homeless children and youths, including services provided with funds reserved under Section 1113(c)(3)(A), to support the enrollment, attendance, and success of homeless children and youths, in coordination with the services the LEA is providing under the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act (42 United States Code 11301 et seq.).

THIS ESSA PROVISION IS ADDRESSED BELOW:

Berkeley Unified School District uses a two-pronged approach to supporting Homeless Children and youths. Family liaisons handle identification and support for grades TK-5. With our Title I allocation intended for this purpose, the District employs a full-time McKinney-Vento counselor who oversees and provides services for MKV students and families in grades 6-12. This counselor is responsible for identification and ongoing monitoring of academic progress.

These services include support for the acquisition of emergency or temporary housing, transportation assistance, access to a food bank or other essential services as well as a broad range of medical and academic services. Some specific means supporting this vulnerable population include: BART tickets, AC transit tickets, supplemental supplies and materials for homeless students, hygiene supplies etc.

Separately, but to support this work, the District funds two student welfare and attendance coordinators who often make referrals to MKV support when chronic absenteeism is the initial flag for what we later determine to be a homeless crisis.

Student Transitions

ESSA SECTIONS 1112(b)(8), 1112(b)(10), and 1112(b)(10) (A–B)

There is regular coordination among several offices. In addition, Associate Superintendent office of Special Projects regularly monitors use of federal resources to ensure this coordination, as well as prevent redundancy and supplanting of services mandated as LEA core functions.

The Title II, Part A identified priorities at BUSD and the resulting activities and strategies are seamlessly integrated and coordinated into the work of departments outside of Human Resources & professional development. Recruiting, selecting, staying and hiring highly qualified teachers, administrators and instructional assistants & other support staff are the key to successful schools. #### THIS ESSA PROVISION IS ADDRESSED BELOW:

Funding directed to a full-time central teacher on special assignment will work with District leaders to oversee the overall direction and development of a new EL master plan. Currently, sta? is exploring the possibility of coupling the EL master plan into a singular master plan that also serves the needs of standard English learners (Los Angeles has modeled this in the master plan they rolled out last year).

Recent adoption and training of K-3 sta? in a newly rolled out phonics program will provide essential building blocks for younger students, both English and Standard English learners.

Maintaining sta?ng of EL Coaches at all K-5 school sites also means dedicated sta? at all elementary school sites to support teachers and language learners directly with both imbedded and explicit strategies for language learners in both pull-out and push in situations.

THIS ESSA PROVISION IS ADDRESSED BELOW:

With respect to usage of the SSAE program funds for a well-rounded education. - Approximately $35,600 (64%) of funds were dedicated to support Math Intervention programs. In support of our identified priorities within BUSD's LCAP, where we commit to the goal that our students will demonstrate grade level proficiency in math with eighth grade performance serving as the district indicator of progress toward this goal.

With respect to usage of the SSAE program funds for programs that support safe and healthy students - Approximately $12,000 (21%) of funds were dedicated to support existing Safe and Healthy Students programs and trainings.

Approximately $8,400 (15%) of funds to support District ELA Intervention licenses to help build skills in Literacy for students who need additional supports in basic skills. into the effective use of technology in our schools. Specifically, the funding will be infused into our after school program where we are seeking to determine universal software usage across those programs to help build discrete skills in literacy and mathematics for kids who need additional supports in basic skills as they pursue core content standards.

BUSD developed its application through consultation with school principals, specialized instructional support personnel & others with relevant and demonstrated expertise in programs and activities designed to meet the purpose of this subpart, to better inform the decision-making process. The ongoing LCAP development process served as the platform for gathering input and information to create a needs assessment, as much as it informed districtwide priorities for all resources. The LCAP currently serves as BUSD's most prominent evaluation process, to periodically evaluate the effectiveness of the activities carried out under this section based on such objectives and outcomes. In addition, anecdotal information is regularly gathered by those closer to the implementation activities, such as the supervisor of after school programs. BUSD continues to work with these sta? to align their e?orts with those of teachers and school sites, during the school day, to better measure the implementation and impact of these e?orts on the discrete skills in literacy and mathematics for students who need additional supports in basic skills as they pursue core content standards.
