

JOIN US
FRIDAY, MAY 19TH
5-7:30 PM

BUSD AAPI HERITAGE MONTH CELEBRATION:

AAPI ACTIVISM

BUSD STORIES!

ACTIVITIES! SMALL BITES!

HULA PERFORMANCE!

PANEL OF COMMUNITY ACTIVISTS!

AND MORE!

1231 Addison Street
BUSD School Board
Meeting Room
Wheelchair accessible

Live ASL
Interpretation

Livestreaming
Link

RSVP and get automatically entered in the RAFFLE!

5:00-5:30 PM: Small bites from Southside Station (BUSD family restaurant), craft and game activities, books for sale by Eastwind Books of Berkeley

5:30-6 PM: Hula performance by Hālau Ka Ua Tuahine, under the direction of Kumu Hula Māhealani Uchiyama

6:00-7:30 PM Panel of Community activists (CHILD CARE Provided for this portion, please RSVP)

- Julianna Loretto, BHS student in the AAPI Literature class will perform an original piece
- Loa Niumeitolu, former BUSD parent, will talk about how using the API/AAPI rubric harms Pasifika communities
- Medina Lam, BHS student, will speak about the student activism to reinstate an AAPI class at BHS
- Lisa Juachon, BUSD parent and Juniper Dorado, BHS student, will share their work of founding and participating in Sama Sama Cooperative, a Filipino/a/x summer camp
- Barnali Ghosh, will share some BUSD stories via her work with Berkeley South Asian Radical Walking Tour
- Beatrice & Harvey Dong, Co-founders of Eastwind Books, will share about their Bay Area activism
- Moderator: Mike Chang, BUSD School Board Member & Ethnic Studies Educator